TUITION INCENTIVE PROGRAM 2010-2011

- ✓ Do you want your children to receive a Jewish education?
- ✓ Have you not yet found your "home" in a synagogue?
- ✓ Are you new to San Diego?
- ✓ Has cost been a factor in having your child attend a Jewish congregational school?

If you answered YES to any of the above,

T.I.P.

(Tuition Incentive Program)

May be the answer for you! You Qualify If . . .

- ✓ You have a child entering grades K-4 in the fall 2010.
- ✓ You have never been affiliated with a synagogue.
- ✓ You have not been a member of a synagogue for at least three or more years.
- ✓ Your child has not received a Jewish congregational or Jewish Day School education.

T.I.P. is a program that enrolls one child in your family to attend a congregational school tuition FREE for one year. Your family will receive one year of synagogue membership for a fee of $365. Synagogue membership is required for participation in this program.

You have the choice of sixteen community synagogues to join for the year and enroll your child in their school. The synagogues follow the traditions of the Orthodox, Conservative, Reform, Reconstructionist, Chabad and Humanistic movements.

Please note that there are a limited number of T.I.P. subsidies. Applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis.

Complete the attached Application Form by August 20, 2010 and return it to:
